Agenda Notes

- Welcome and introductions
  - Mikayla Holm welcomed all of the meeting participants and facilitated introductions.
- Update on NUENAS 1.0 by Dr. Collette Adamsen and team
  - Cheri Gay said that tremendous progress has been made on the report, booklet, and accompanying infographics.
  - Dr. Collette Adamsen said the report and data booklet are being finalized and provided an overview of the in-progress documents on screen with the group.
    - She commented on traditional foods in particular as a challenging aspect of the survey, in terms of reporting results. The solution was to depict responses via a word cloud, with the size of each word representing frequency of the response.
- October Event Updates
  - Cheri Gay reviewed the October event logistics.
    - October 17 and 18 are the event dates.
    - The event will be hybrid.
      - June Kao will manage the event facilities booking request.
      - Cheri Gay will collaborate with Dr. Aaron Payment to discuss event promotion per Cynthia LaCounte's suggestion.

- Aisha Bonner Cozad requested that Jordan Green (jgreen@aarp.org) be added to future meetings to assist with the AARP side of event coordination.
- June Kao suggested Henry Kenney III (hkenneyiii@aarp.org) for the AARP side of external relations.
  - We will follow up the event with electronic materials (and hardcopy by request).
  - We welcome suggestions for additional participants to invite.
    - If you suggest a potential participant, please kindly provide their contact information to Cheri Gay (cheri.gay@kauffmaninc.com).
- Post- Discussion and Q&A
  - Mashell Sourjohm requested that Dr. Collette Adamsen present to her employees, and she agreed.
  - Cheri Gay shared with the group that there will be webinars to follow the October event that may be useful to attend also.
  - Dr. Collette Adamsen noted for everyone that the Title VI survey results correspond fairly closely with this study of urban Native elders.

Closing Comments

Next steps

- Cheri Gay will collaborate with Dr. Aaron Payment to discuss event promotion per Cynthia LaCounte's suggestion.
- Cheri Gay will update her email list for the biweekly meetings with the recommended individuals discussed during the meeting.
- Anyone who wishes to suggest a potential participant will provide that person's full name and contact information to Cheri Gay (cheri.gay@kauffmaninc.com).
- Mashell Sourjohm and Dr. Collette Adamsen will coordinate separately for a presentation for Mashell Sourjohm's employees.
- Cynthia LaCounte said that if KAI needs assistance finding an elder to open the October event in a good way or a drum group that she is happy to assist. Cheri Gay will reach out if said assistance is needed.
